

Welcome to the Park

Crooked River Provincial Park has long been a popular destination for fun seekers. The park offers three beautiful lakes, some of the best sandy beaches in the region and is a favorite spot for sunbathers.

Visitors enjoy this park for its excellent fishing, hiking, camping and nature study opportunities. Visitors shouldn't miss Livingston Springs, a natural cold-water spring that runs year round; or the elegant trumpeter swans that visit Crooked River in the winter.

Things to Do

Day-use area has flush toilets, running water, lots of parking, picnic tables, picnic shelter and an adventure playground for kids.

Bear Lake has 2 quiet, sandy beaches that are great for swimming and sunbathing. Power boats are not permitted. There are no lifeguards on duty.

Bear Lake trail loops the lake; great for an easy stroll.
