

Welcome to the Park

Cultus Lake is the largest, warm freshwater lake and the single biggest outdoor recreation attraction of its kind in the Fraser Valley. Cultus Lake is one of the few meccas in the province that offers an almost limitless variety of summer diversions. In addition to boating, swimming, waterskiing, sunbathing, picnicking and camping offered in the provincial park, there exists a host of commercial attractions in both the adjacent municipal park and in nearby private sector establishments.

Things to Do

Teapot Hill trail near Honeymoon Bay group site has steep sections making this trail moderately difficult. Allow 2 hours return.

Seven Sisters trail connects Entrance Bay and Clear Creek campgrounds and views stands of Douglas-fir trees, once numbering seven. Allow 1 hour each way.

Giant Douglas-fir trail begins 150 m west of Delta Grove campground and leads to a goliath tree and joins with Clear Creek campground. Allow 40 minutes.

Maple Bay Interpretive trail is self-guiding trail starting near the day-use parking area. At trailhead, grab a brochure and enjoy a half hour stroll.

Cultus Lake Horse trail from Watt Creek parking area goes north 10 km to Edmeston Road. Hiking and biking permitted. Allow 3.5 hours each way.

Wharfs and sandy beaches are available at the Entrance Bay and Maple Bay day-use areas. Swim in buoyed areas; there are dangerous drop-offs along lakeshore and no lifeguards on duty.

Canoeing and kayaking are available on Cultus Lake.

Cultus Lake has rainbow and cutthroat trout, and Dolly Varden. Nearby Chilliwack Lake has steelhead, whitefish and coho salmon. Licence is required.

Visitor Services

Hot showers are available at all campgrounds and Maple Bay day-use area has a cold shower .

Visitors can use sani-station for a fee of $2.00 per use. Located at Maple Bay day-use area.

Delta Grove, Clear Creek campgrounds and Entrance Bay and Maple Bay day-use areas have accessible washrooms. Entrance Bay has an accessible campsite.

Enjoy Your Stay

Park regulations protect the natural state of the park and ensure a quality experience for all visitors.

- Fires are permitted in designated fire rings only. Visitors may bring firewood or purchase at park.
- Pets must be on a leash at all times. Please be responsible for their behaviour and waste.
- Anything with an odour could attract wildlife to your site. Place garbage in bins, avoid cooking inside tents and tent trailers, and store all food supplies, including coolers, in your vehicle.
