

FREE Visitors Programs Mt. Robson Provincial Park

These fun and educational programs are held rain or shine or even snow (very rare)!

Thursday July 23rd

Robson Meadows Amphitheatre
Mt Robson is the monarch of the Canadian Rockies and guards the entrance to the province of BC. Can you name the 7 Wonders of Mt. Robson Provincial Park?

7²
5⁴
6³
1?

There is so much to explore both here and beyond in BC, so come out for a glimpse of the opportunities that await you.

Friday July 24th

2:30-4:30 Plants of the Park
Mt Robson Visitor Centre
Come check out what's green, booming and blooming. Pressed specimens of common plants in the park will be on display and the park naturalist will be there to answer any questions. Feel free to bring in pictures of other plants seen on your travels to identify.

7:30pm Horny Goat & the Antlers
Robson Meadows Amphitheatre

Horny Goat and the Antlers
Why Ungulates are Cool Tour

"Why Ungulates Are Cool" Tour
Featuring Hit Topics:
Ungu-what?
Nice Rack, what's your name?
Guess the Goat (or deer)

Saturday July 25th

Attention all Kids!
1 pm Jerry's Rangers
Robson Meadows Amphitheatre

Jerry's Rangers programs are just for you and your parents. Come out and earn one of twelve stickers and a Jerry's Ranger Certificate. Play games, draw pictures and learn all about nature, history and being safe in the outdoors!

7:30pm Put on Your Bear Goggles
Robson Meadows Amphitheatre
It's hard to be a bear in people country, but you can make it easier. Come discover a new way of thinking, walk a mile in their paws and learn how to keep you and your family safe.

Sunday July 26th

11am-12pm Walk on Water
Meet at Berg Lake Trailhead

Mt. Robson Park boasts of incredible glaciers, the majestic Fraser River, and enough rain to support a temperate rainforest. Meet at the Berg Lake Trailhead and walk partway to Kinney Lake - feel free to continue on to the lake or walk back with the park naturalist.

Water bottles, sunscreen, proper footwear, and enthusiasm are needed!

7:30pm
Time Travel Through Trails
Robson Meadows Amphitheatre

Step back into a time when travelling through the Yellowhead Pass was treacherous and terrifying. Launch forward to the first trains, the first car and finally the opening of the highway. Return to 2009 with a new understanding of how Mt. Robson Park came to be.