

ARCTIC GRAYLING

Long dorsal fin (more than 17 rays)

WHITEFISH¹

Large scales

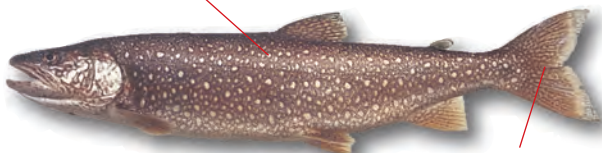

Adipose fin

Teeth weakly developed or absent

LAKE TROUT¹

Worm-like markings on back and dorsal fin

Tail deeply forked

BULL TROUT

Large, broad, flattened head

No worm-like markings on dorsal fin

Whitish to pinkish spots, largest spots smaller than pupil

Upper jaw curves down

Body flattened on underside

White leading edges on lower fins

DOLLY VARDEN

Oval, snake-like body

No worm-like markings on dorsal fin

Whitish to pinkish spots, largest spots smaller than pupil

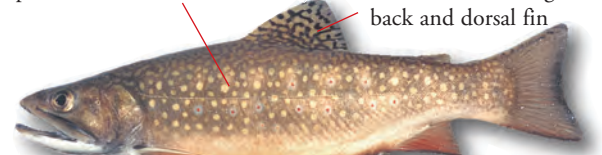

Head does not dominate body

White leading edges on lower fins

BROOK TROUT

Red spots with blue halos

Worm-like markings on back and dorsal fin

Pinkish-orange paired fins edged in white

STEELHEAD

Fork length 50 cm or more

No teeth in throat at back of tongue

RAINBOW TROUT

Small black spots mostly restricted to above the lateral line

Radiating rows of spots on tail

No teeth in throat at back of tongue

COASTAL CUTTHROAT TROUT

Teeth in throat at back of tongue

Heavy spotting from front to rear

Large mouth (extends well past eye)

Red slash under lower jaw (may be faint)

WESTSLOPE CUTTHROAT TROUT

Teeth in throat at back of tongue

Spots more numerous on posterior half of body

Large mouth (extends well past eye)

Red slash under lower jaw

KOKANEE¹

No distinct black spots on sides

Long anal fin (13 or more rays)

BROWN TROUT

Black or brown spots, many with light halos

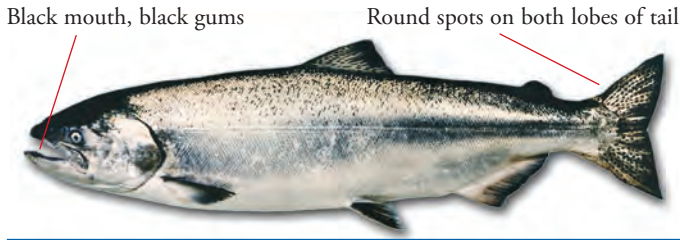

Adipose fin with spots

Tail with few or no spots

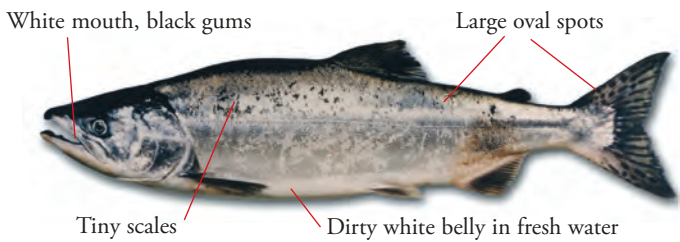

CHINOOK SALMON²

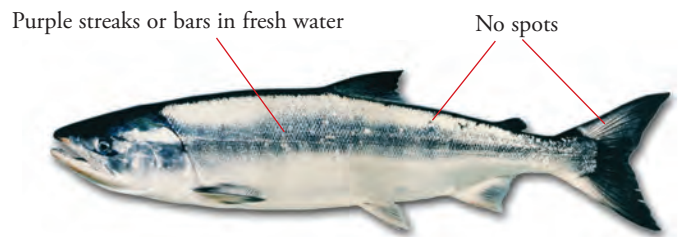

COHO SALMON²

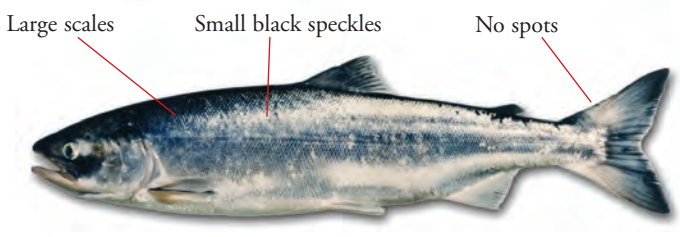

PINK SALMON²

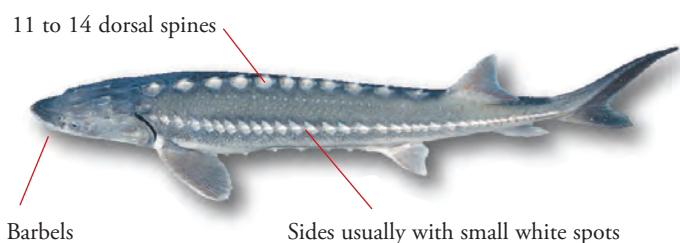

CHUM SALMON²

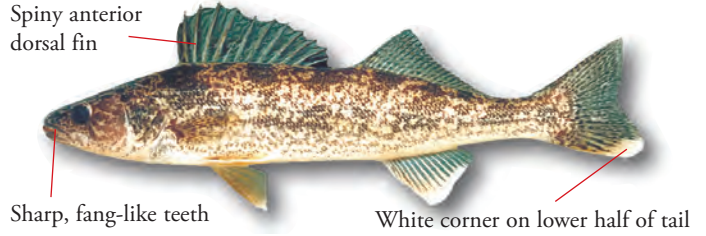

SOCKEYE SALMON²

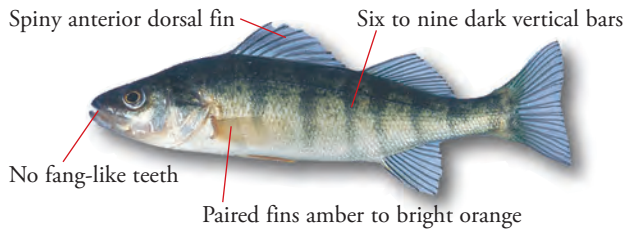

WHITE STURGEON¹

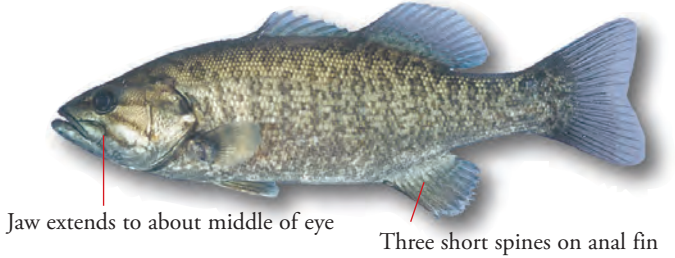

WALLEYE

YELLOW PERCH

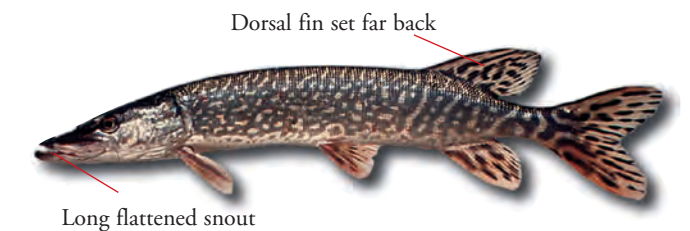

SMALLMOUTH BASS

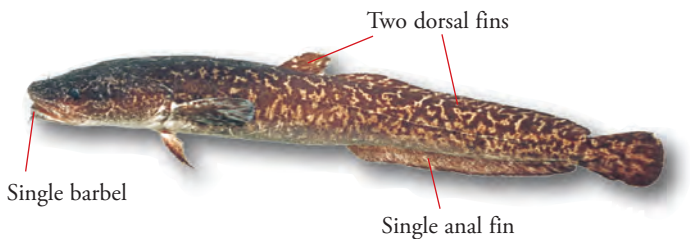

BLACK CRAPPIE

NORTHERN PIKE

BURBOT

A fish identification key is posted at www.env.gov.bc.ca/fw/fish/sport_fish