- 2 During the period set out in paragraph 1 no disposition under the Act may be made of any of the Reserved Area for the purpose of commercial recreation but this withdrawal does not prohibit:
- a a disposition to replace, or extend the term of, any commercial recreation tenure subsisting at the date of this notice;
 - b a disposition to an applicant in respect of an application for a commercial recreation tenure where an offer has been made to the applicant prior to the date of this notice;
 - c the approval of any assignment or other transfer of any commercial recreation tenure subsisting on the date of this notice;
 - d the amendment of any commercial recreation tenure subsisting on the date of this notice where such amendment has been reviewed and approved by the Director of the Species at Risk Coordination Office, Integrated Land Management Bureau, Ministry of Agriculture and Lands;
 - e a disposition to an applicant in respect of an application for a commercial recreation tenure where such application has been reviewed and approved by the Director of the Species at Risk Coordination Office, Integrated Land Management Bureau, Ministry of Agriculture and Lands;
 - f or any other disposition where the purpose of the disposition is not commercial recreation;
 - g the amendment of any commercial recreation tenure where the amendment is within the existing tenure boundary and is consistent with an approved Tenure Management Plan, Master Development Agreement or Operating Agreement, except when the amendment includes an addition of area outside the original tenure:
- 3 For the purpose of this notice the meaning of the term "commercial recreation" and "commercial recreation tenure" are to be determined with reference to the Land and Water British Columbia Commercial Recreation Land Use Policy, as that policy may be amended from time to time.
